

Minister of State for Agriculture and Farmers Welfare Sh. Gajender Singh Shekhawat monitored the activities of CAZRI KVK, Jodhpur

Sh. Gajender Singh Shekhawat, Hon'ble Minister of State of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Government of India, New Delhi visited KVK at CAZRI, Jodhpur. During the visit of the Hon'ble Minister took keen interest in technologies related to water management, value addition of fruits, vegetables, cereals, pulses and milk. He was also focused on waste de-composer for the bio-waste degradation. He appreciated the activities conducted by the KVK. Minister also interacted with farmers on all issues related to technology adoption, increased production and marketing skills. He especially emphasized on use of crops requiring less water and provide high yields.

Earlier, Dr. O.P.Yadav, Director CAZRI, emphasized that the farmers must be take benefit of latest technologies from research institutes and KVK. Dr. S.K. Singh Director ATARI was also presented and highlighted the role of KVKs. Dr. S.K. Sharma, Head of KVK presented the detailed achievements of KVK.

